

To Whom It May Concern

It is with great pleasure that I recommend Pygmalion Agency LLC as a company for international business assistance services in Russia.

This company was a valuable partner for our company, TV Azteca, during the FIFA 2018 World Cup events where they provided the logistics, transfer and multi-language interpreting services in Moscow and other Russian host cities (Rostov-on-Don, Ekaterinburg, and Samara).

I had the pleasure to cooperate directly with many of the fine people at Pygmalion Agency LLC. Their translators and drivers are professionally qualified experts, their skills, enthusiasm and attitude helped us feel comfortable staying and working in Russia.

Please feel free to contact me for further information.
